

Sutton Quaker Meeting is delighted to present

Tales from the Meeting House Quaker Myths and Legends

An evening of storytelling for adults told by

Cindylou Turner-Taylor

7.30 pm to 9.30 pm on Friday 6 October 2017
at Sutton Quaker Meeting House
10 Cedar Road, Sutton Surrey SM2 5DA
(3 minutes from Sutton Station)

Cindylou has been telling stories for over 30 years. She is a storyteller, artist, teacher and a graduate of the International School of Storytelling. Bubbling with fun and laughter, combining fierce energy with tenderness and compassion, her warmth and humour are infectious, as is her love for stories.

*"She will keep you on the edge of your seat asking for more"
Roi Gal-or, Director, International School of Storytelling.*

The stories are for adults and young people 14+

FREE event

Published by Sutton Meeting, part of South London Area Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers), a charity

Sutton Quaker Meeting is delighted to present

Tales from the Meeting House Quaker Myths and Legends

An evening of storytelling for adults told by

Cindylou Turner-Taylor

7.30 pm to 9.30 pm on Friday 6 October 2017
at Sutton Quaker Meeting House
10 Cedar Road, Sutton Surrey SM2 5DA
(3 minutes from Sutton Station)

Cindylou has been telling stories for over 30 years. She is a storyteller, artist, teacher and a graduate of the International School of Storytelling. Bubbling with fun and laughter, combining fierce energy with tenderness and compassion, her warmth and humour are infectious, as is her love for stories.

*"She will keep you on the edge of your seat asking for more"
Roi Gal-or, Director, International School of Storytelling.*

The stories are for adults and young people 14+

FREE event

Published by Sutton Meeting, part of South London Area Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers), a charity